Free Tech Support

Just about everything costs more these days, don't you agree? You wouldn't agree if you've visited DGL's free online technical support message center. You can post your toughest problem, and we'll get an answer up just as fast as we can.

Find the DGL Message Center at dgl.com/msg/ or drop us a note at info@dgl.com.

Netscape Tip

You may want to reference the URL (Uniform Resource Location) of an Internet hyperlink in a document you're writing.

In Netscape, point your mouse to the hyperlink and right click. Then click "Copy Link Location." You've copied the URL to your Win95 clipboard. You can now paste it in your word processor.

Learn Netscape Navigator tricks like this in our Netscape, Level 1 class on November 25th.

Excel Tip

Use Excel's commenting feature to keep notes for later reference regarding data you've entered into your worksheet.

Click "Insert | Comment" to add a note to a specific cell. The cell will display a red triangle in the corner reminding you that there's a note attached.
