Wall Street Journal Online

The Wall Street Journal online edition is open for a free trial subscription through the summer.

The site, <http://www.wsj.com/> has a personal service for customized delivery of news pertinent to your interests.

LAN Times

LAN Times, the standard rag of all system administrators, is available online at <http://www.uworld.com/lantimes/>.

In one way, the electronic version of the mag is even better than the paper version...you can search current and past issues to find just what you're looking for.

PC Week

Ok, so you're not a system administrator, but if you use a personal computer, you should be reading PC Week.

And what better way than to read it at your PC? Point your browser to <http://www.pcweek.com/>.

DGL Volleys For Charity

Your personal computer experts raised donations for the National Kidney Foundation at the annual VolleyBaltimore.

The DGL Demons thank all of you who sponsored us in the fight against kidney disease.

HOLY COW, PC FANS!

Here's what we all want: a Gateway 2000 Destination PC, complete with Pentium 120 MHz processor, 1.2 GB hard disk, 6x CD-ROM, and 31" big screen monitor...the best news: it's free!

Free, that is, if you win. Enter your name at <http://www.pcweek.com/contest/>.

Online Meetings

Microsoft Corp. uploaded a beta version of NetMeeting, its Internet conferencing and collaboration software.

The User Location Service is posted at <http://uls.microsoft.com/>.

NetMeeting lets users share, view, and control any Windows application across the Internet or a corporate LAN. The package allows whiteboarding, chat sessions, and shared documents.

Multiple users can share a single copy of Word, and swap control of the application. A right mouse click brings up a dialog box that enables the changes.

Down On The Farm

Softaid Net Works of Columbia has announced it's new Server Farm.

What's a server farm? It's a herd of Internet servers each of which is dedicated to an individual client. Separate servers ensure the fastest possible delivery of information for corporate websites.

Each server is directly connected to a high-speed digital T1 phone line. Softaid may be reached at 410.290.7763.

Internet Business Applications Group

DGL and Softaid Net Works sponsor an Internet Business Applications Group the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of every month.

Meetings are held at DGL's Columbia headquarters from 6:00 P.M. to 7:30 P.M.

The meetings are open to all DGL and SNW customers and friends, and there's no fee to attend.

The first session of the applications group addressed creating CGI scripts and implementing database tables. Tonight's meeting will introduce effective graphic creation tips--saving download time while keeping resolution.

Meetings are open to all, and there's no fee to attend.

The June 12th meeting will address Internet databases using the SQLWeb data management system.

For more information, contact registrar@dgl.com.

Reservations are required and may be placed by email to registrar@dgl.com or by phone to 410.290.7000.

Charge It At DGL

DGL accepts VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express corporate and personal credit cards for payment of classes, tutoring, books, and hardware products.
